President's Message

Our country cousins came a Callin' and they sure showed us "city slickers" a thang' or two! Who would a thunk it? We auctioned off our UFO's and piles o' sewing stuff and earn over $2900.00?

Missy Sally Mae and Missy Gay-elle sure 'Nuf did a bang up job o' selling country dead turkeys to us all. They deserve a big city thank you. We beg them to come back ever' onect in awhile to get - er- done again.

Our workshop day was great fun with our guild members making purses with Gale Licata and her creative instruction using Nancy Ota's purse pattern. Linda Sackin had tons of knitted purse examples to motivate the knitters. She was patient as a saint with us non-knitters as well. We were all busy impressing each other with what we had accomplished while having fun learning something new. You missed out big time on this one if you couldn't attend. So next time perk up early and plan ahead to join the fun.

We have our fabulous sold out bus trip the second Wednesday in July but you can still plan on fun by joining us to charity quilt the Thursday after on July 12. Just give Carol Logue a call and have $5. for room rental and lunch included. What a bargain! They will have pizza for lunch and we bring the ingredients for a huge community salad. The fabric is cut and ready to go for Christmas stockings in July. All you need is your machine and sewing notions. How easy is that

If you haven't attended the club house where Carol lives for a sew-in, you're missing a really lovely workshop facility, not to mention the association with top notch guild members for a day of fun.

2007 Live Quilt Auction – Tea

Mark Oct 13, 2007 on your calendar for our "OGQG Live Quilt Auction – Tea", 8am-5pm.

What a great chance we have to contribute back to the guild. Hope you have started working on a quilt to donate and thinking about what food dish you can contribute. A big thank you to all of you who are working on your quilt to donate. The quilt maker has 80/20% option, 80% to the guild and 20% to the quilter. The proceeds go into our guild for wonderful speakers. Remember how much we all laughed in May when Jennie Rayment presented her quilting twiddles, fiddle, nip and tuck. The quality of our speakers are determined by the money we have. Therefore, we have fund raisers – like auction/show.

Many feel small quilt shows attendance will fall down with events like the huge International Quilt Show (like Houston Show) coming to Long Beach next summer. It's possible our auctions might become our bread and butter. Pass the word to everyone you know to come to our Oct Live Auction-Tea, where beautiful quilts and hand made items can be purchased.

We already have two quilts turned in for the auction. Quilt sleeves are not required.

Entry forms are available in newsletter, web site and at guild meetings. We can even email you one.

- Entry form is required for each item.
- Staple color picture of quilt to entry form. Quilt doesn't have to be completed in the picture. If you do not anyway to get a picture, bring it to the Aug meeting. Mary will take a picture and have it developed for you.
- Dead line to submit form is Sept meeting.
- Dead line to deliver quilt is Oct 10 meeting.

Clip boards will be passed around asking for volunteers: to bring food and help with the auction at our next guild meeting. Does anyone have a pop up awning? We need 6. Please call if you have one and can bring it the day of the auction.

Next Auction Tea meeting will be Monday Aug 13th 9:30am, at Mary's. Anyone is welcome to attend. Meeting schedule after Aug: Sept 17, Oct 1 and wrap up meeting Oct 29th all at 9:30am. Mary Stockard, chair 2007 Live Quilt Auction – Tea, 714-893-2502

RED, WHITE & BLUE, a patriotic quilt w/machine embroidered patriotic symbols by Merci Apodaca, assembled and hand quilted by Barbara Purks raised around $142 for Susan G. Komen for the cure. The quilt was won by Joan Morrow. She was thrilled to receive it. Thanks to you all for your continued support of the Komen Foundation.

WORKSHOPS We had a very stress-free workshop in June with the "Bag Ladies" and thank both Linda Sackin and Gale Licata for stepping in and doing the workshop. Everyone had a great time!

On Thursday, July 12, we will be having a Charity workshop and Bea will have kits available for you to sew. Bring your sewing machines and regular supplies. Call Carol to sign -up...$5 will cover your lunch. Come and sew with us and have a fun day!

We still have several openings for the August workshop with Mary Pavlovich. Please call Carol if you are interested in signing up.

The September, October, and November workshops are all full, but we have a waiting list if you are still interested in possibly taking the workshops. Most of the time we have cancellations and will fill the class from the waiting lists, so it's important for you to sign up. For those of you that have signed up for the workshops we will be sending the supply lists to you via e-mail.

. If you have signed up for a class and your e-mail has changed from what is in the yearbook, please let me know at lindagrays65@sbcglobal.net and I'll make sure you get a copy of the supply list. If you don't have e-mail, please see Carol or myself at the meetings and we'll make sure you get your supply list. Any questions, just call or e-mail. See you at a workshop! Linda Gray

Ways & Means

How great you all looked in your Mother's Day pearls. Thank you Carolyn for donating them!

Our total for May was $223.00!! Good for us! A special "thank you" to all who supported our Ways and Means table either by buying tickets or donating items. We couldn't do it without you.

The baskets were won by Marilyn De Boynton and Sherril Gerard. Enjoy your treasures! The lucky winner of the tea set was Aileen Tsuruda a guest to our guild.

Next month's theme is patriotic. Check your stash for any red, white and blue fabrics. Thought we'd do patriotic in June instead of July so the winners can have a quilt done by next month. (Just kidding, but you never know!) Any gently used items that you think will work for the suggested "theme" will also be welcomed. So look in your stash, closets and boxes. This is a great way to make use of those treasures! Plus don't forget, you get a ticket for your donations.

We will have something "special" instead of the wall hangings next month, so be prepared to be surprised.

We draw the winning tickets after the break, so that we can be ready after the speaker is finished with her presentation, so don't forget to deposit your tickets before taking your seat. Tickets are sold before the meeting as soon as we set up, usually around 8:45 and during the break.

See you all next month at the Ways and Means table in the back of the room.

Carolyn Mohanty and Justine Gentile
