June: Dead Turkeys

DEAD TURKEY AUCTION

You've heard about it, it's new, but what is it?

It's the new " Dead Turkey Auction "!!

It's fun and really easy for you--you don't have to make anything!!

The "Dead Turkey" is like a swap meet. In June, everything will be out for you to see. After the business meeting, we will have the "auction" and you can bid for any and all the treasures!

Small items will be combined together. For these, we will sell opportunity tickets; you place the stubs into any bag(s) you choose. At the end of the auction we will pull the winning stubs.

You will be surprised how many things you will see that are tempting--and best of all, you have cleaned out that UFO pile and helped the Guild!

Still have questions? Call Sally McKibben (562) 492-6947

Deer Ma'am

Wal, wer jest bustin' at the seams with folks who is a-leapin at the chance to help out with all these turkeys. We got us the bestest bunch of Hog Callers and Holder Uppers in the county and whun hot-diggity Gen'l Flunkie. We can shore use more folks tho'.

We got us 20 quilt tops , in both whole hog and piglet (thatz quilt and wall hanging sizes to yu city folk), a passle o' fabric and fancy noshuns and dern near three crates o' block setz all reddy to make inta more quiltz!

Bye the way, were hopin' ever'n 'll get all dressed up, cuz costuums is more fun.

Luv frum Sally Mae an Missy Gay-elle

President's Message

Have you stopped laughing yet? Jennie Rayment was a true Vegas act. Have you ever been taught to quilt in French? As entertaining as she was Jennie was an excellent teacher. She had us really working in her workshop. (I left @ 3:45pm and she was still teaching!)

We are a lucky group of men and women to have quality teachers and workshops available to us. International teachers and local teachers keep us on our toes and at such bargain fees! That is why our Auction and Tea in October is so very important. The money earned keeps a roof over our heads with a great meeting hall and luxurious workshop location. Becoming a part of such a great group of guild members is just a start but actually becoming a contributing guild member with your time and talent only serves to make us a stronger, more fantastic organization.

Please consider the Auction and Tea by looking at your stash to see how creative you can be using only what you already have to make a quilt top, table runner, wall hanging, place mats or table toppers. All these items are great sellers. If you have orphan blocks, bring them to your friendship group and get your heads together. You might be surprised at what you will create! Now that you have decided what to make for auction, actually volunteer to help hang the show or help in the kitchen. If you have retail experience, help collect the money and charges from the auction.

We really have fun setting up and taking down with clean up. It really goes fast with many hands to make the work light and fun. You will have a sense of pride to be a part of it all and I promise you a warm glow from cementing guild member friendships.

Last but not least, you will be giddy with joy to find out just how much money the auction and tea earned because we have all worked together.

"What goes around comes around"

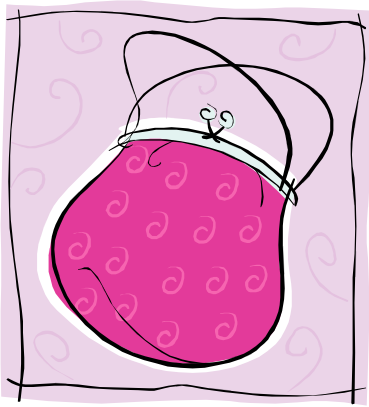

Love, laugh, relax and quilt,

2007 Live Quilt Auction – Tea

Our Auction – Tea kick off meeting was a success. Twenty attended and all the committees that need to get things done NOW have chairs. As time get near the auction don't be surprised if you are asked to help!

Our auction will be a success. What makes our OGQG guild shine is the members. So many people are working on quilts. If you are not working on an auction quilt please plan to start on one and contribute. Unfinished quilt tops and blocks could be donated and completed by others. So bring them to the guild meeting or contact me to pick them up.

Our 2007 fundraisers, to keep our guild financially secure), are the Auction and the Opportunity Quilt. Lets all contribute by taking the quilt to other guilds/events and by making a quilt for the auction. Mary

ROUND ROBIN

June is the meeting when you get your block back, only it has blossomed into a wall hanging!!

Now is the time to show off your skills in this last border for your fellow participant, and they will do the same for you.

Some "quilt-ettes" have strayed from the formats, but that's OK! Usually it is because your secret quilter got extra-inspired!

If you feel a different border design than rectangles will better enhance the finished product, go right ahead; just make sure it relates to the original center design.

Happy Quilting—We will do Show and Tell as a group at the meeting and you will be happy you participated.

Philanthropy

There were 11 completed quilts, 12 tops and 15 pillowcases turned in this past month. Those of you who are sewing the 3" x 6" bricks together, when you finish the top you need to put a border on the quilt. You can also add strips in between the bricks or do anything you want. Get creative. The door prizes were won by Ann Leibovitz, fat pack from Moore's, Sally Kuck, fat pack from Moore's, Janice Robb, $10.00 quilt certificate from Quilt Cupboard, Deanne Paul, project bag from Singer Sewing Center, and Ingrid Vigeant, Quilt in a Day book, Underground Railroad from Singer Sewing Center and Taffy Harper, $10.00 gift certificate from Bear's. Don't forget to write a thank you to the shops that gave us the door prizes. Don't forget we are going to be having Project Self Sufficiency coming to pick up the quilts that you have all made.

Until then Happy Quilting. Bea Vieira and Carol Howerton

TEA AND AUCTION OPPORTUNITY BASKETS

The following is a list of the opportunity baskets for the Auction/Tea. Next to the themes are some suggestions to help you get started thinking about your contributions. (Think of things that would entice you to buy a ticket!) These are no means the only possibilities. We will accept any new or gently used items. You can also make a cash donation to help defray the cost of putting the baskets together. You have been so generous to the guild and we know we can count on you to help make this affair a success. Items and donations may be given to Eloise Sadler at the Library table. Thank you for your generosity.

Sharon Hritz, Carolyn Mohanty, Eloise Sadler, Justine Gentile

June Unsung Heroes

Madeline Sherman and Shirley Ellsworth are examples of guild members who participate in guild activities enhancing what ever project to which they elect to devote their time and talent.

Madeline and Shirley deserve to be recognized as our June Unsung Heroes.

Part of our Birthday celebration in September will be a Birthday Quilt. One lucky participating member of our Guild will win this Quilt. To win, you must first make a block. Don't make a block? Can't win!!

At our Birthday party on September 12, the lucky winner will be drawn. Remember, to win, you must make this block. It's the Indian Hatchet pattern. I look forward to hearing from you and adding you to the list of participants.

The block must be turned in by the June Guild meeting. If it is not received by that date, it will not be in the quilt. Please join us in celebrating our birthday in this fun way.

Marie Blash & Barbara Purks
