OGQG 30TH ANNIVERSARY

What a rousing success this quilt was! Amazing! The lucky winner is Norma Millett, a charter member. Congratulations Norma! I know the quilt has a good home.

Our Guest speaker, Christal Carter graciously donated 2 patterns that were won by Carol Bird. It was a great day of win-wins!! If my records are correct, the quilt generated almost $400 in profit for the Guild. Way to go people!

The quilt will appear in our Quilt Show in November. Come, check it out and enjoy!
~ Barbara Purks

KALEIDOSCOPE OF QUILTS ACQUISITION

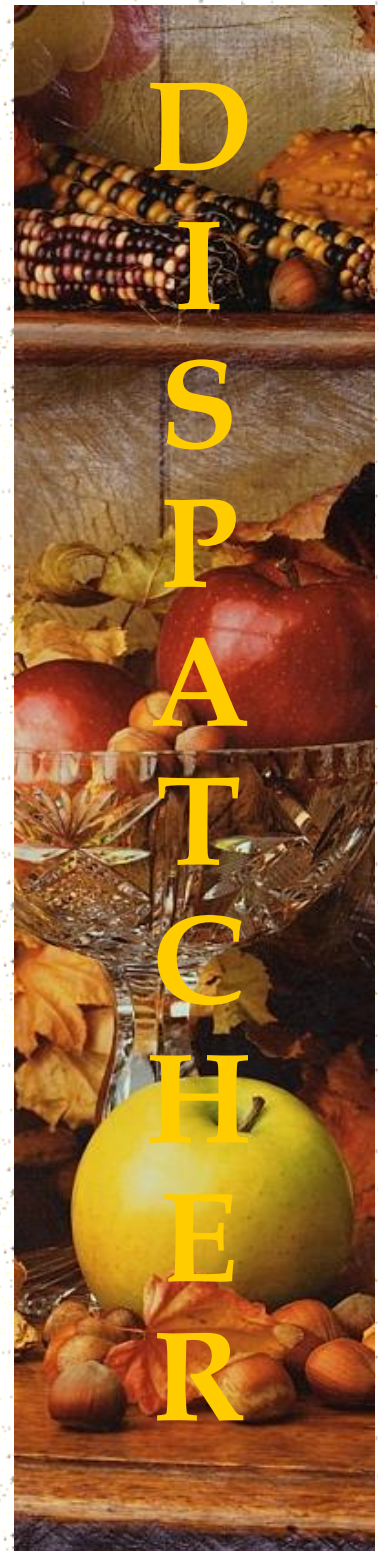

The Quilt Show is right around the corner. We're very proud of the gorgeous quilts and wearable art that will be on display this year.

Quilts MUST be turned in no later than October 10 (guild meeting) or delivered to Mary Stockard's home prior to that date. Be sure to get a receipt when you turn your items in to be able to pick up your quilt(s) after the show!

Quilt pickup will be at approximately 4:20pm on Saturday, November 3rd. A RECEIPT IS REQUIRED! You may have someone pick up your items if they have your receipt. A line will be formed outside Acker Hall to help deliver your quilts with ease. Only the take-down committee will be allowed to remove quilts from the display.

Thanks for your cooperation! This is going to be the best show we've ever had!

~ Mary Stockard and Sherry Lincoln

OCTOBER 2012
VOLUME 30 #9

A Word from our President....

Today was just a wonderful day. I hope all of you were able view the shuttle Endeavour in person or on television as it flew over Southern California. I know most of us know someone personally involved in the space program. My father sold steel and other metals to various aerospace contractors and my father-in-law worked for JPL. I have very fond memories of scientists from JPL coming to my elementary school to speak about the space program. Our space program and all the dedicated and courageous men and women who came together to make all of the many projects happen from Mercury to International Space Station should always be a focus of great pride.

Well our quilt show is fast approaching and the committee is racing to finalize all of the myriad of details that seem to pop up as the show dates approach. If you haven't volunteered for a job, there's still time. I was lucky enough to be able to look through the acquisition forms the other day and we have a brilliant array of quilts you have all submitted for the show and I'm very much looking forward to the display of quilts by our featured quilter, Mary O'Driscoll.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you next month.

Susan

ROAD (Trip) TO CALIFORNIA QUILT SHOW

It all is upon us and we are looking forward to the 2013 Road to California Quilt Show, Thursday, January 24. We will begin taking sign-ups at the October Meeting. Remember we need your check or cash to secure your spot.

For more information call: Eva Jamar \(714\) 964 30289643028) or Joan Groff \(714\) 754-1879754-1879)

SEPTEMBER SUNFLOWERS

Crystal Carter's "Sunflowers" got a great start at the workshop last month. She was kind enough to maximize our time by having templates cut and ready for us to use. This gave us time to really get started hand stitching the leaves and stems. Thank you, Crystal.

Quilt Show Featured Quilter Trivia

Which of the following was Mary O'Driscoll's hobby prior to her taking up quilting?

- a) knitting
- b) wood carving
- c) tole painting
- d) cake decorating

Come to the quilt show and find out!

PHILANTHROPY

Eva Jamar, and Barbara Wilder and Carol Howerton attended the beach party at Camp Pendleton where 75 quilts were handed out to the Marine families. What a group of nice families... it was a great day! They were all so thankful to receive a free quilt. The kids are so cute when they try to select, even the moms and dads had a hard time! They were so amazed that we had done the quilts for them. Thanks to all who helped make this day a big hit.

Following the guild meeting, Kathy Harvey picked up 265 pillow cases, 10 flannel quilts, and two scholarship quilts with matching pillow cases for the Foster Children's picnic to be held September 23rd. Thanks everyone for helping.

Thanks also for all the fabrics, quilts, batting, pillow cases, quilts tops brought in.

We now need to get our Christmas stockings completed by November so they can be forwarded to our service men and women overseas by Christmas. Please, please help!

~ Carol Howerton and Susan Derring

2012 Kaleidoscope of Quilts – November 2 & 3, 2012

Fliers

Fliers will be available at the next guild meeting. Thank you to everyone who has distributed them as you visit shops, family and friends. If you plan to visit Main St., be sure to contact Pam Booze or Beckie Welty for fliers to leave at those businesses.

Quilt Entries

So far we have had 137 quilt forms submitted. Be sure to submit your quilts by the October Guild meeting. Mary Stockard is our Quilt Acquisition Chair, and is available to answer any questions, at 714 893-2502, mstockard@verizon.net.

Pre-Sale Admission Tickets

Bonnie Lippincott has pre-sale tickets for $5. Tickets at the door will be available for $7.

Admissions

Children under 12 will be admitted for free. Youth with a quilt entry are also free. One paid admission ticket will admit an individual for Nov. 2 & 3.

CD Pre-Order

Scott Oberle will be creating a CD of all of the quilts in the quilt show. These CDs will only be available by pre-order. See the order form included in this newsletter. Cost of the CD is $5, and will be an excellent remembrance of our guild's artistry. If you are undecided, but get jealous of your lucky friends with a CD in their hands, you can order a CD at or after the show. That order will include a $5 shipping charge. It pays to order early.

Opportunity Baskets

We still need baskets and the stuff to fill them! Bring your donations to the October guild meeting. We appreciate all of the wonderful baskets and items donated to date.

Suggestions for items:

- Baby Basket items
- Emergency Basket items
- Coffee Basket items

To donate, contact Suzette Rooker, 714-892-0429, youbetchababy@yahoo.com or Thayone Jones, 714-891-8655, thayone@ca.rr.com

Sewing Machine Opportunity

SewVaLtd's generous Bernina donation continues to be on display at guild meetings. Tickets are available at guild meetings and the quilt show for $1 each or 6 for $5. Our sincere appreciation to Joyce Oberle and SewVaLtd for arranging this fantastic opportunity.

Quilt Appraisals

Anne Copeland will be available at our show for quilt appraisals. Nancy Post is coordinating appointments for appraisals at $35 for written appraisal for guild members, $45 for non-guild members, and free verbal appraisals as time permits. Contact Nancy at 562-431-7494, WePosts@verizon.net.

Volunteers

Justine Gentile and Marie Blash continue to solicit volunteers for specific tasks that are needed before the quilt show. Sign up at the October guild meeting. Candyce Ping is unable to serve as white glove lead, so Taffy Harper has volunteered for that critical function of the show. Thank you, Taffy!

The next Quilt Show planning meeting is Monday, October 8, 10:00 AM, Pam Boozan's house. She can be reached at 714 962-5231 or pboozan@aol.com.

THANK YOU!

H i! Orange Grover Quilters Guild members. What a happy day I had September 12th when Christal Carter drew my name as the recipient of the Guild's 30th Anniversary Quilt! This lovely quilt means a great deal to me. I joined the Guild 30 years ago at its 2nd meeting and became friends with a wonderful group of ladies. The membership over the years has remained a very caring group of ladies, and now gents, with open hearts, willing hands and lots of talent. I am so happy to be a part of you.

I want to thank each one of you who contributed a square for this quilt. I will enjoy it for many years. Thank you to Barbara Purks for all the long hours she spent assembling and doing the quilting.

Thank You!

~ Norma Millett

QUILT APPRAISER, ANNE COPELAND, TO OFFER APPRAISALS AT NOVEMBER QUILT SHOW

*D*uring our quilt show November 2-3, Anne will be doing quilt appraisals for interested members. Verbal evaluations are free of charge.

Written appraisals are generally given for insurance purposes when entering shows, etc. and are $45, but OGQG members will get theirs for $35. Anne will take field notes and photos at the show, then send the typed and legal document in approximately 2 weeks. Appraisals are approximately 6-8 pages per quilt, sometimes up to 14 or more depending on the quilt and the information needed to accompany it.

Appraisals generally take 15 minutes per quilt, but some may take longer so appointments will be scheduled at 30-minute intervals. Prepare to line up a few minutes prior to your appointed time to keep the flow moving.

Ann will measure and photograph each quilt, front and back, take block measurements and detail photos. A description of each quilt is written to accompany the photos. She will need the following information to complete the appraisal: name, address, phone number, Email address and the name of the quilt.

When requesting an appraisal, please include the time and date you prefer and your name, email and phone number. Also, please designate if you would like a verbal or written appraisal.

Members who are interested in having their quilts appraised should contact Nancy Post at: weposts@verizon.net or call me at 562-431-7494.

COMING IN OCTOBER...

*C*razy Patch" is October's workshop and it will be taught by..... ta-dah: me (Justine). Many of the ideas can be transferred to embellishing appliqué/quilts so you are not limited to use the embroidery techniques to crazy quilting. Bring your supplies, lunch, snacks and drinks and be ready to go at 9 AM. The workshops will be held at Carol Logue's complex at 15111 Bushard Street, Westminster. See you there!

We are now taking signups for the January and February workshops. Linda Sackin will be teaching a raw edge floral piece which uses large prints. If you want to try raw edge appliqué, this is the workshop for you. In February, Sandy Klop will be teaching "Triple Crown" using a jelly roll. Check your stash and see if you can find that jelly roll you bought a while ago. This is a great project! Check out the samples at the workshop table.

Any questions? See us at the workshop table or contact us at: Marie Blash: 714-775-8004; marie-blash@att.net; Justine Gentile: 714-962-8447; Ibic@aol.com.

OGQG BULLETIN BOARD

*T*ake advantage of the guild's bulletin board in the back of Acker Hall if you're looking for specific items or services or have items to give away. Just a few rules apply: Nothing can be sold by this means, postings must be dated and will remain active for 2 months. Postings will appear in the next month's newsletter. Look for the bulletin at the next meeting.

Looking for:

- 1 or 2 pieces of New York-related fabric, 10" x 5" for Pam Himes, pmhquilts@gmail.com or 714-826-8552.

FYI:

- American Legion Holiday Craft Fair, Long Beach, October 14th - 9am-2pm. Call 562-420-1010 for more info. Booth Rental: 562-623-0139

SUSAN G. KOMEN FOR THE CURE

The winning ticket for this year's quilt will be drawn at the Race for the Cure at Fashion Island, September 23, 2012. I tried something new at the last meeting -- giving an extra ticket for each $5 book. It worked out great!

Thank you all for your support. I took the quilt to Orange County Quilters Guild in September. It was well received.

Thanks to Linda Gotthard and Joyce Oberle for their contributions to support our Guild Team at Race for the Cure.

YOPLAIT LIDS

Pink Yoplait lids are in stores now. I will have a container to collect them so that OC Komen will get credit for them. Remember, only Yoplait pink lid containers purchased in 2012 count. If you've got anything older, throw them out. This campaign for OC Komen will run until December.

General Mills has put "Save Lids to Save Lives" on over 24 of their products. I will collect those lids as well --- just cut them out and bring 'em in!

Thanks for your support of this important cause!
